Love Motivated Service

Pastor Jose Prado

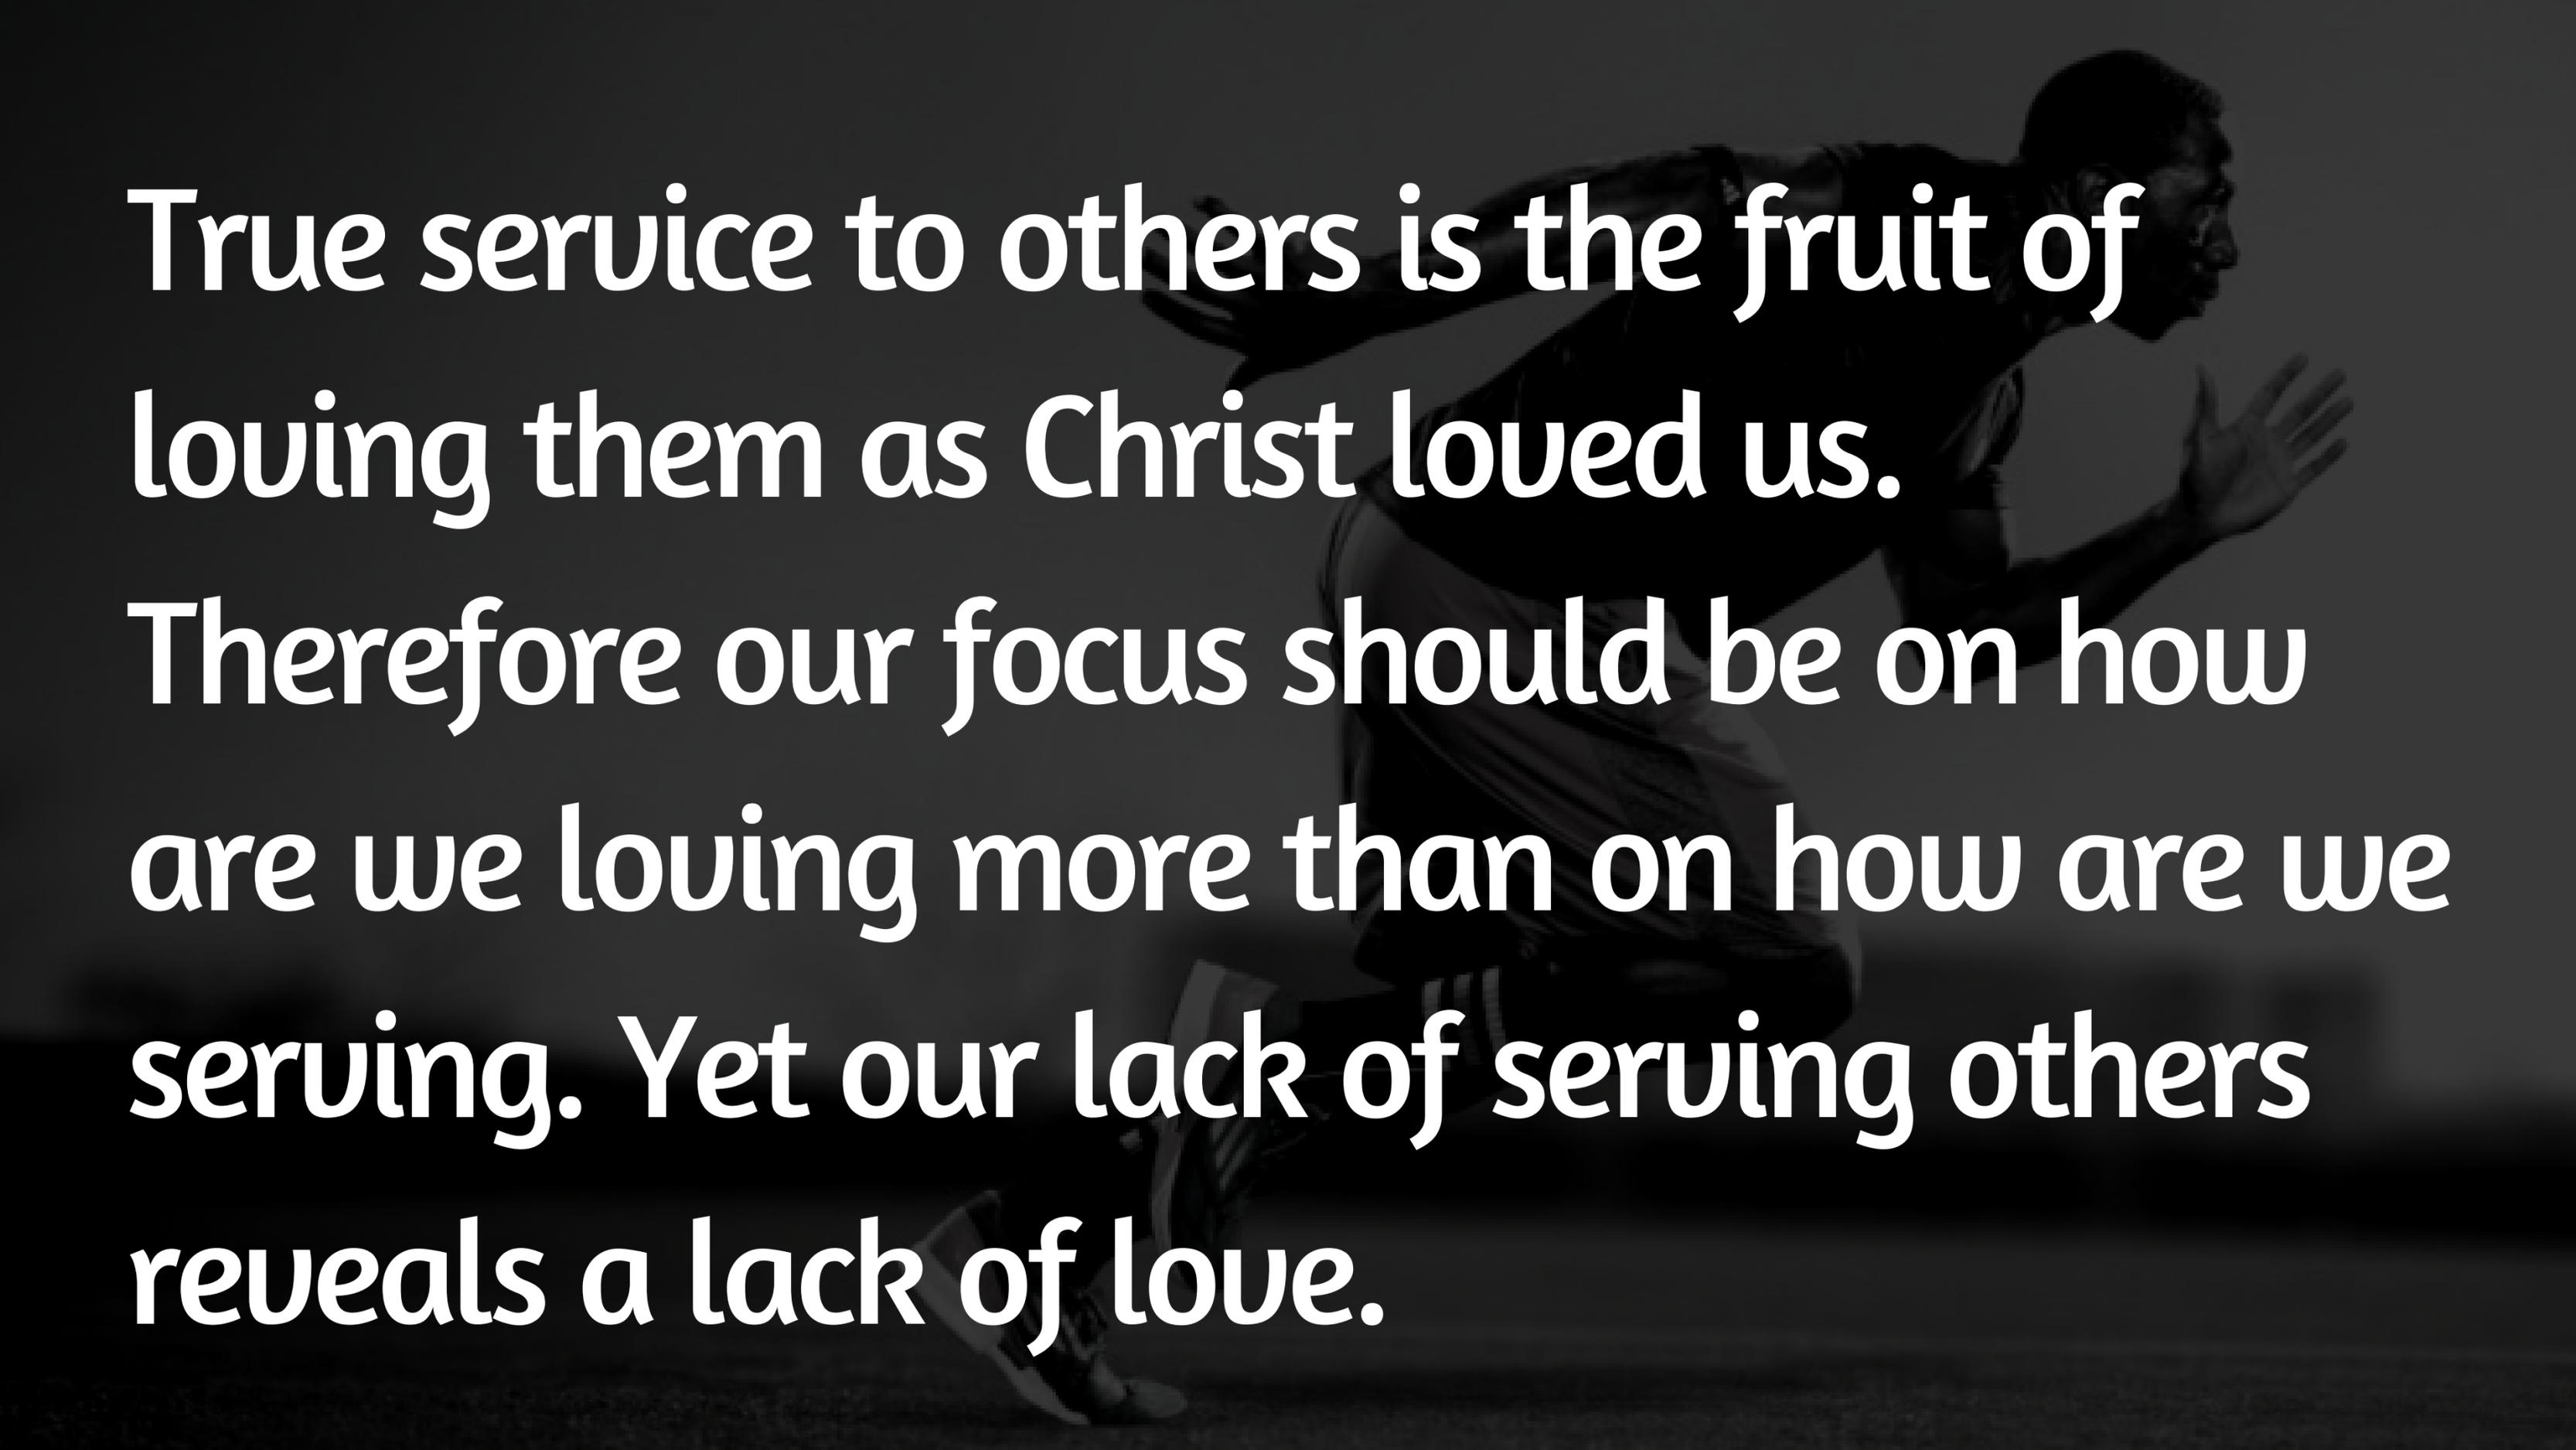

John 13:1-17

01/21/2018

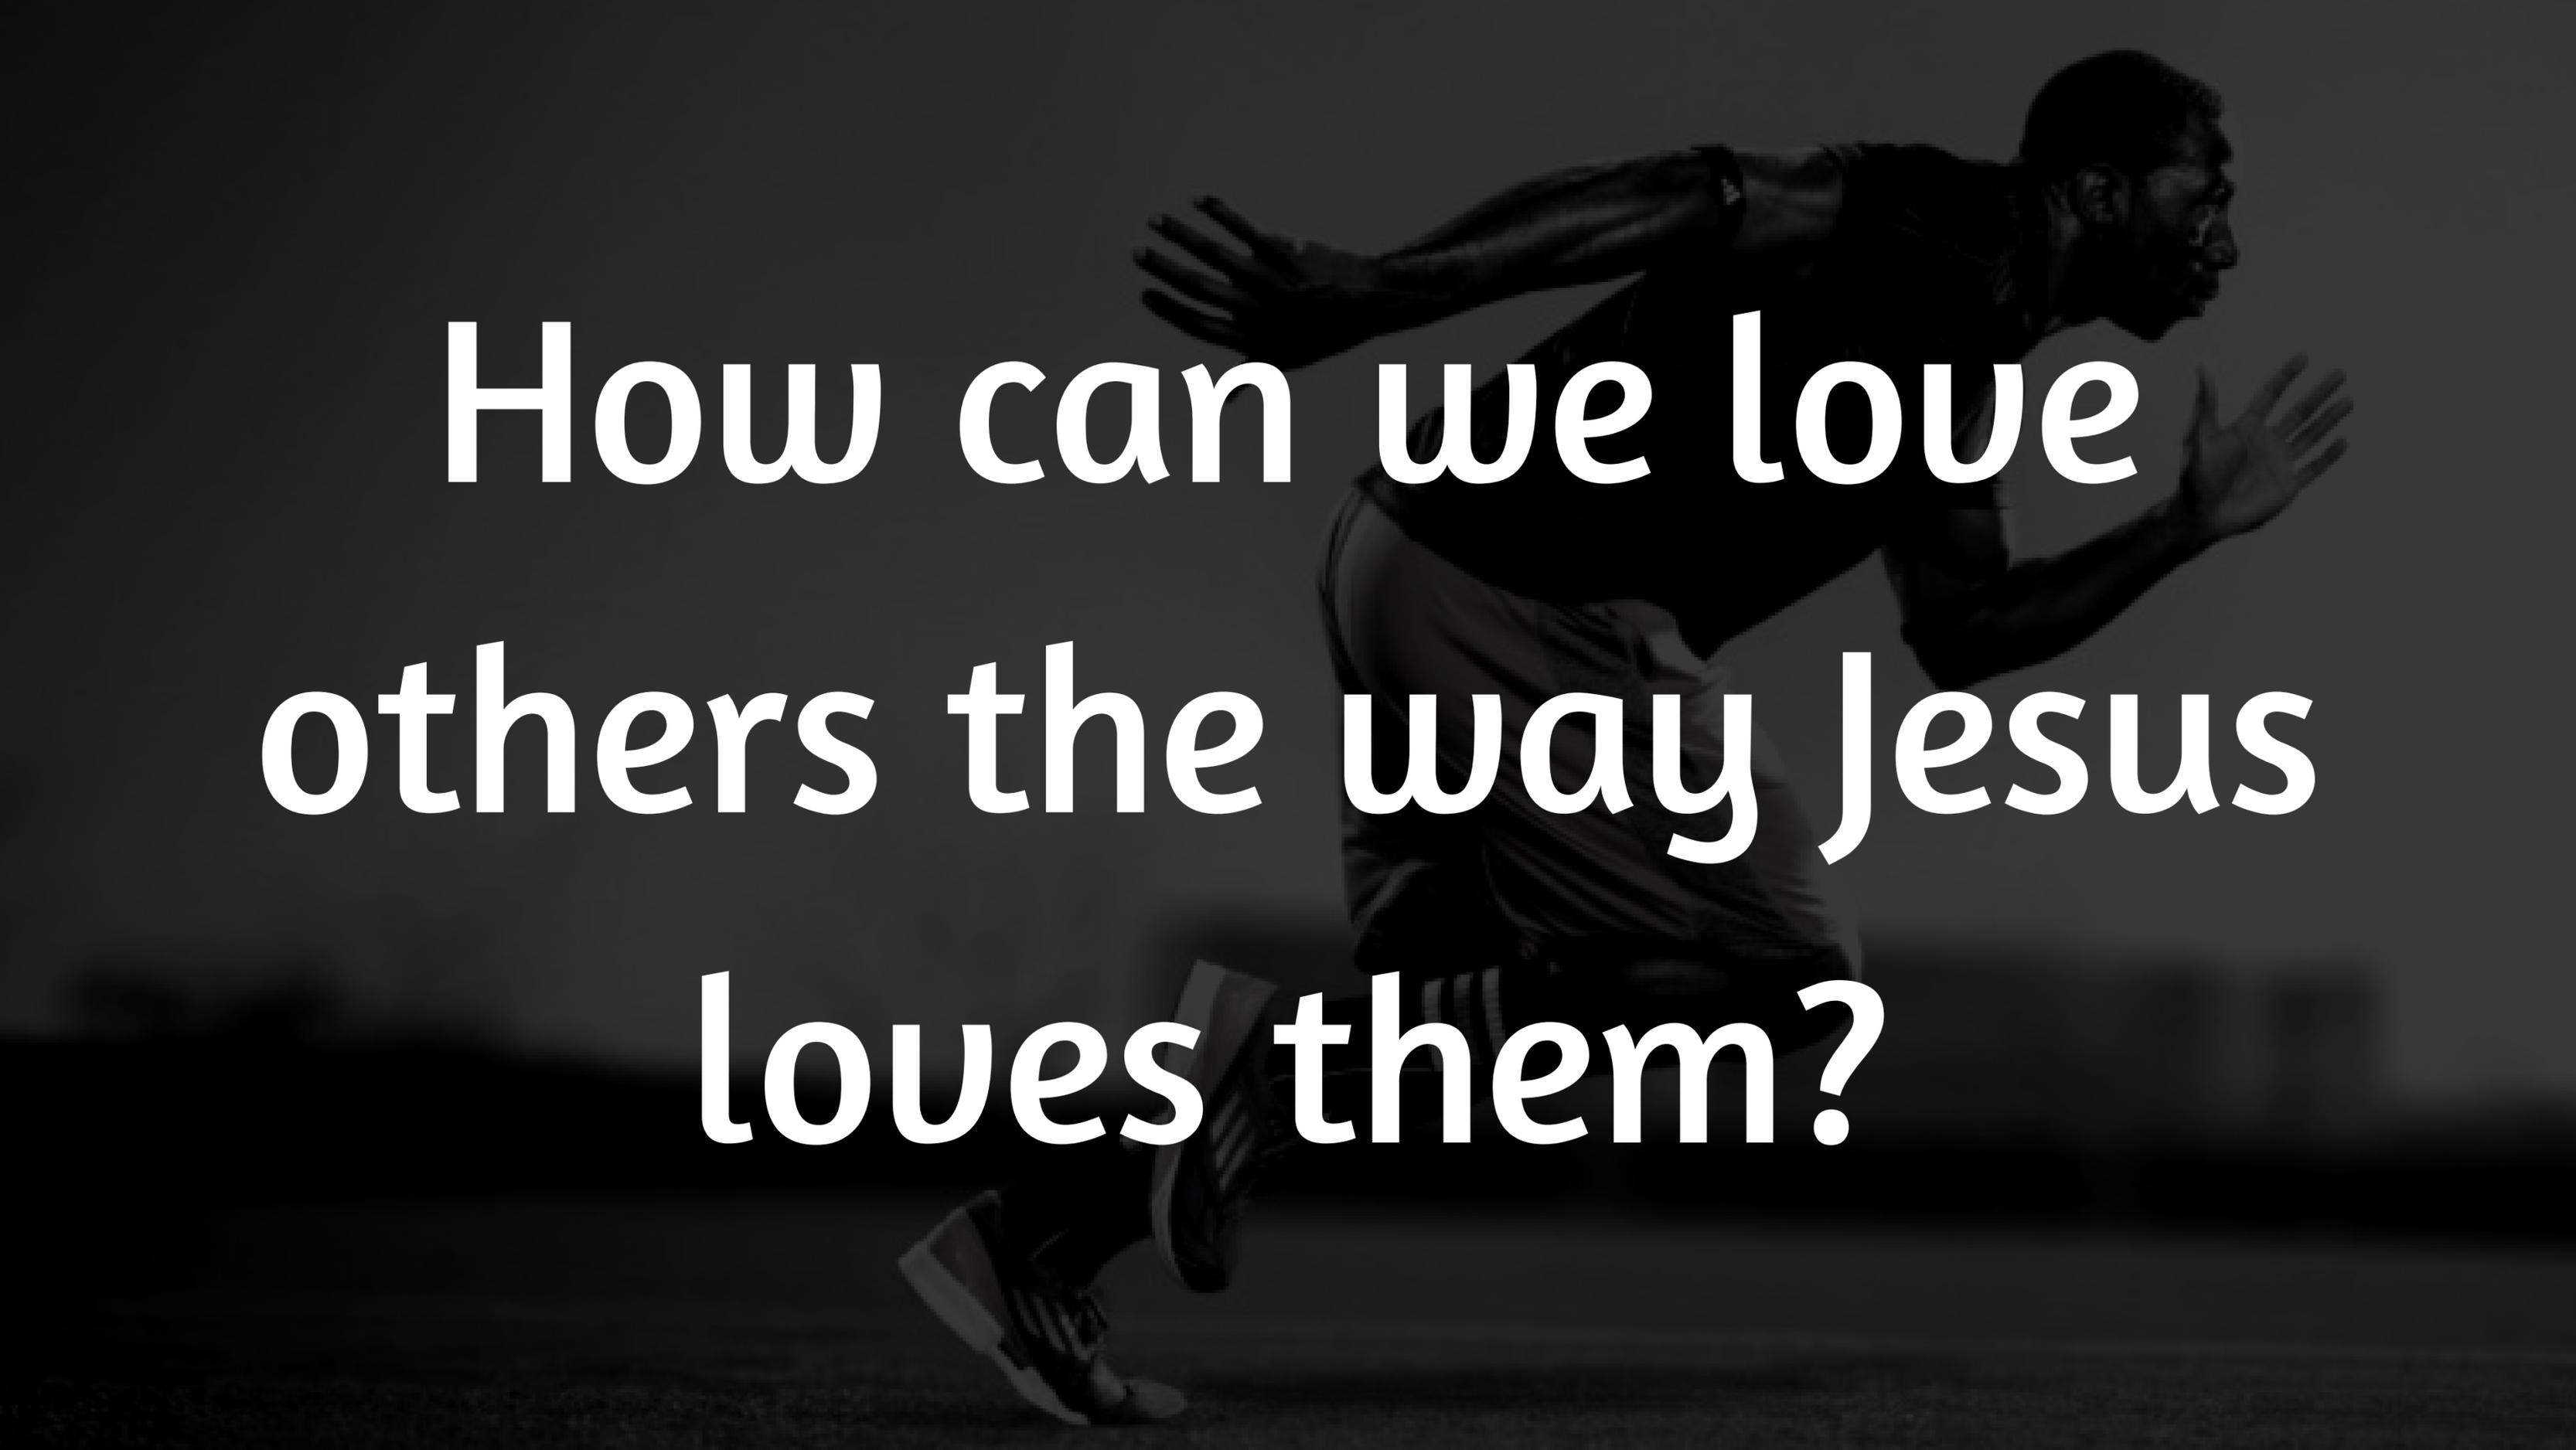

A silhouette of a person running against a dark background. The person is captured in a dynamic, forward-leaning pose, suggesting speed and effort. The lighting highlights the contours of their body, including their arms, legs, and torso. The overall mood is one of determination and movement.

What should motivate the way
we serve others?

A silhouette of a man in a suit running, symbolizing service or urgency. The man is captured in a dynamic, forward-leaning pose, with his arms pumping and his head turned slightly to the right. The background is a dark, solid color, making the white text and the dark silhouette stand out.

True service to others is the fruit of loving them as Christ loved us.

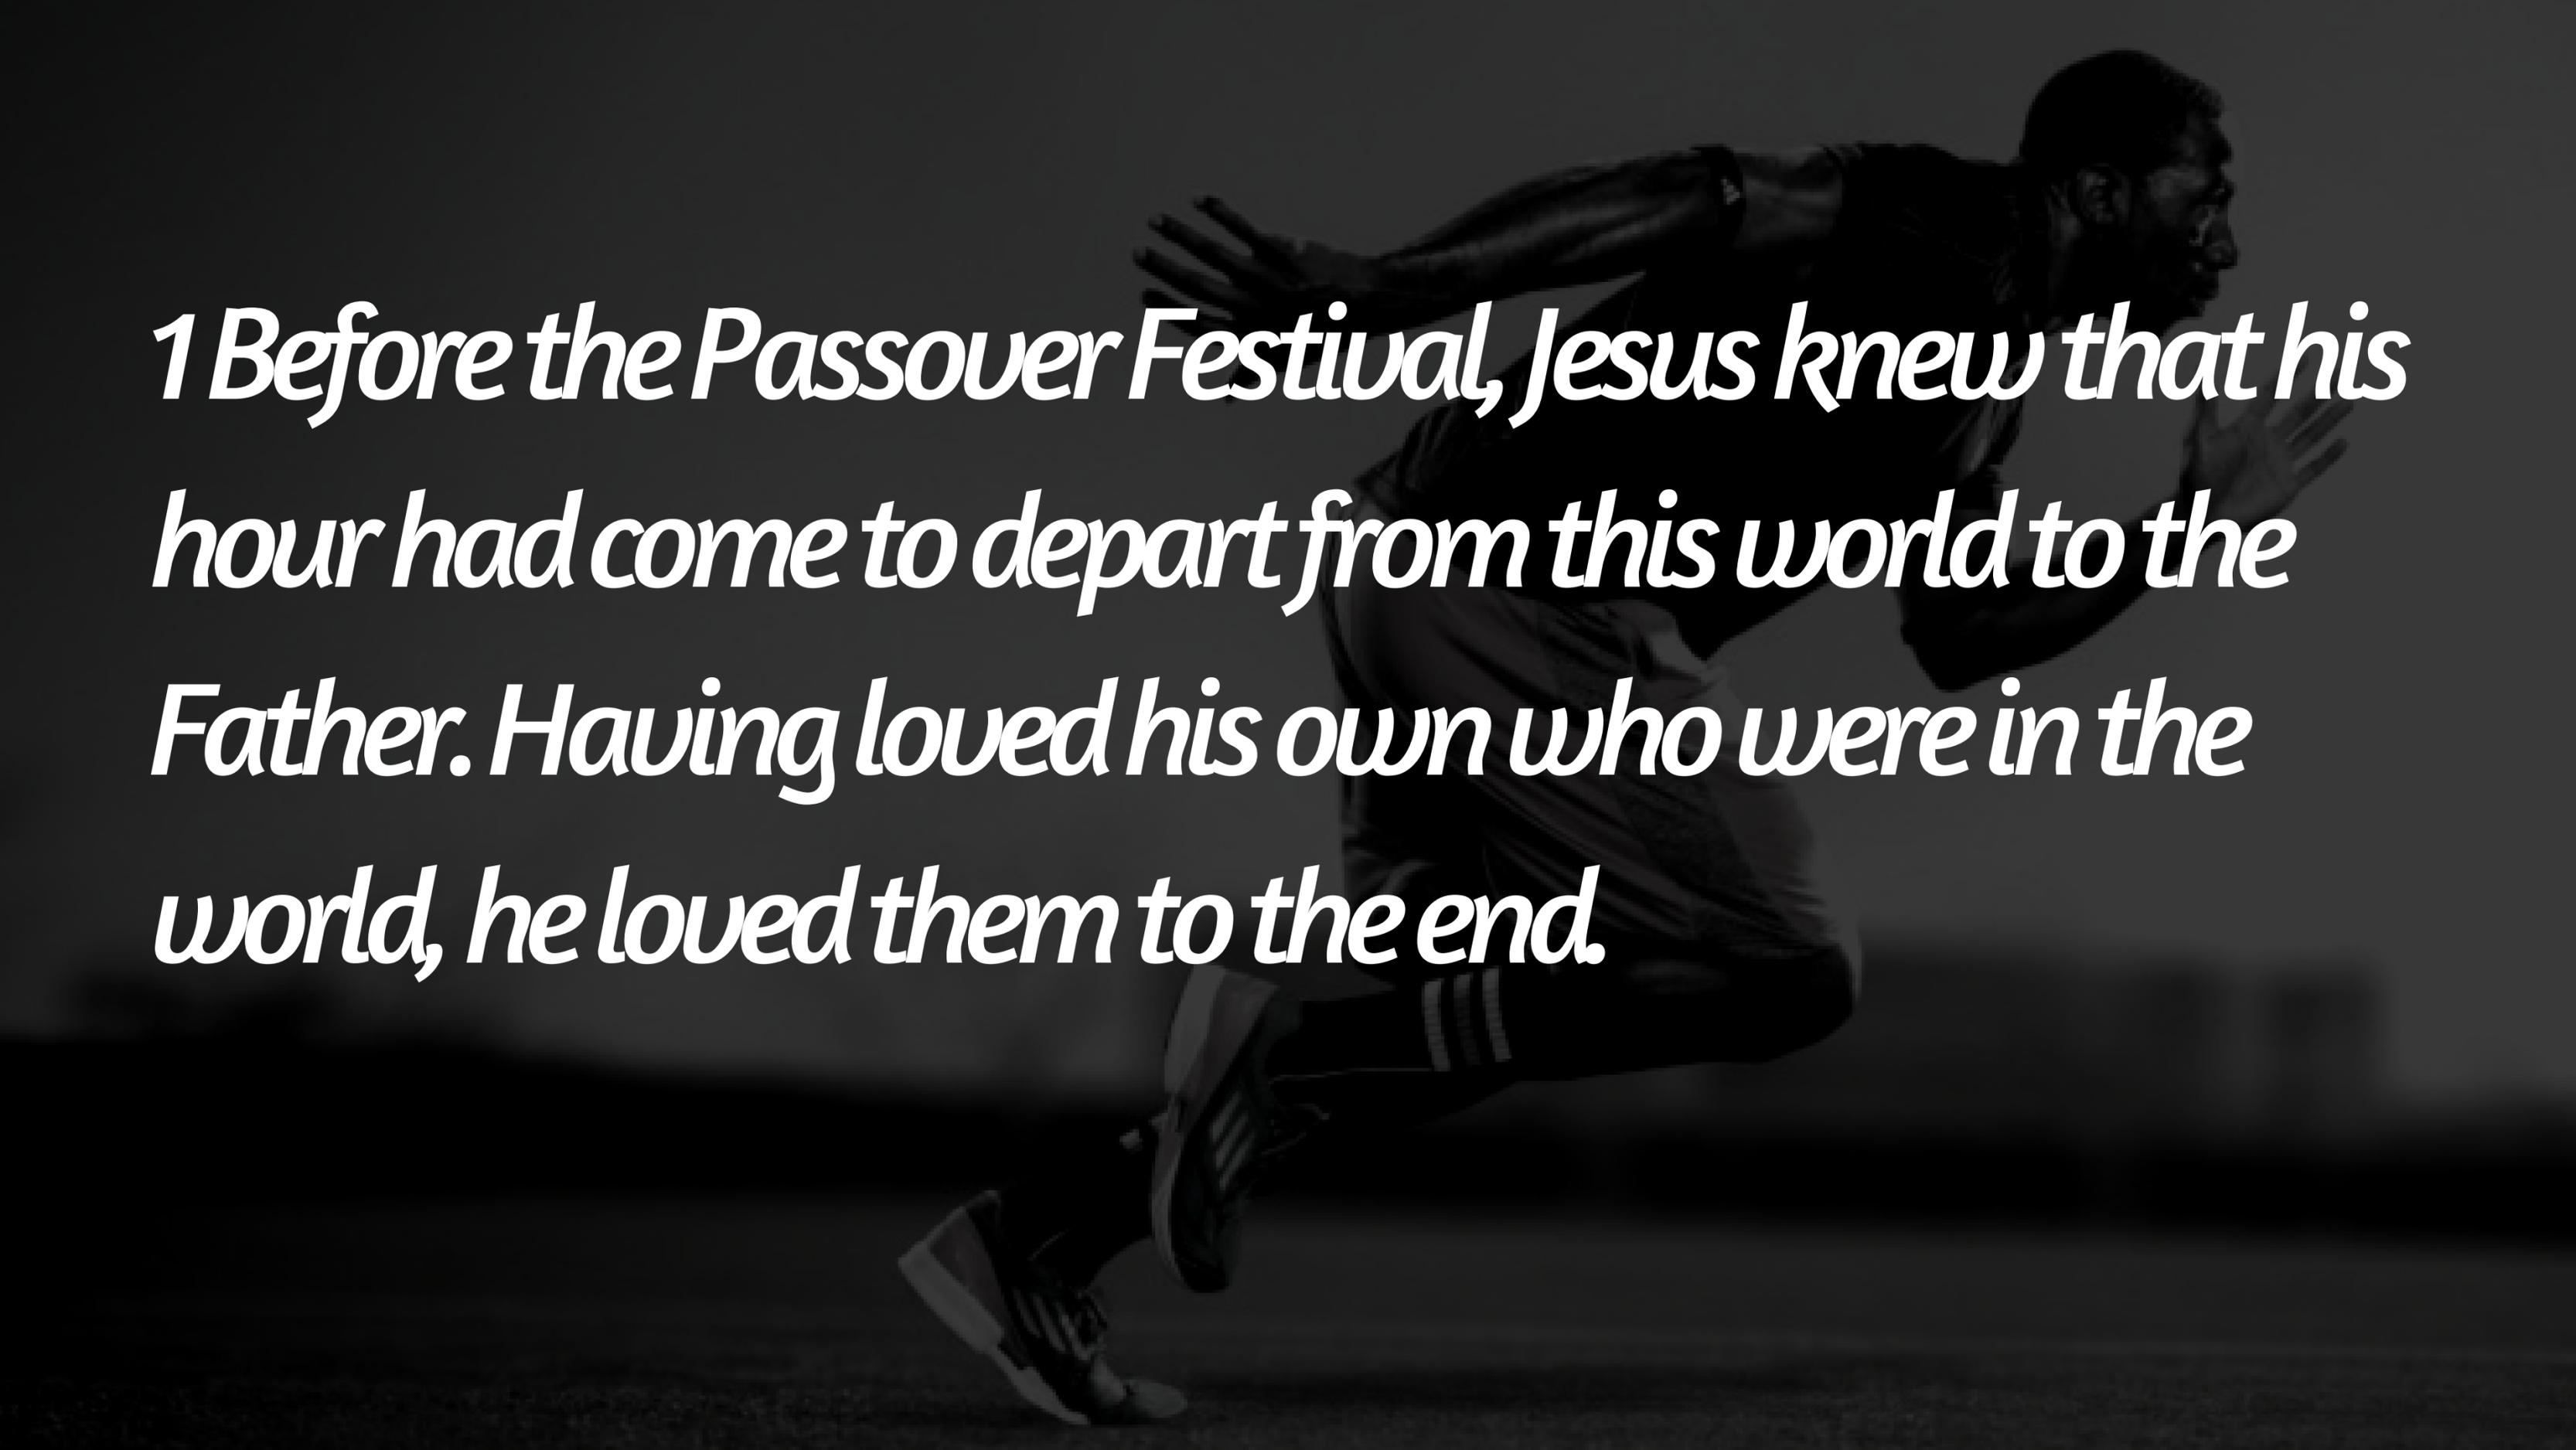

Therefore our focus should be on how are we loving more than on how are we serving. Yet our lack of serving others reveals a lack of love.

How can we love
others the way Jesus
loves them?

A silhouette of a male athlete in a running pose, overlaid with the text "1. Loved Defined". The athlete is captured in a dynamic, forward-leaning position, with arms extended and legs in mid-stride. The background is a dark, blurred outdoor setting, possibly a track or field. The text is rendered in a large, white, serif font, centered horizontally across the middle of the image.

1. Loved Defined

A silhouette of a man running against a dark background. The man is captured in a dynamic, forward-leaning pose, with his arms and legs in motion, suggesting speed and determination. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the contours of his body against the dark backdrop.

1 Before the Passover Festival, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

2. Loved Received

4 So he got up from supper, laid aside his outer clothing, took a towel, and tied it around himself. 5 Next, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet and to dry them with the towel tied around him. 6 He came to Simon Peter, who asked him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" 7 Jesus answered him, "What I'm doing you don't realize now, but afterward you will understand." 8 "You will never wash my feet," Peter said. Jesus replied, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with me."

The text is in a large, white, sans-serif font, centered horizontally and partially overlapping the athlete's torso and legs. The background is a dark, blurred outdoor setting.

3. Love Giving

12 When Jesus had washed their feet and put on his outer clothing, he reclined again and said to them, “Do you know what I have done for you? 13 You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are speaking rightly, since that is what I am. 14 So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. 15 For I have given you an example that you also should do just as I have done for you. 16 “Truly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his master, and a messenger is not greater than the one who sent him.

How can we love
others the way Jesus
loves them?

We can only serve others motivated by love when we have received the love of Jesus with all our hearts.
